JIM ROBINSON COMES CLEAR

Evidence not Strong Enough to Convict Him in Murder Case

Bookwalter Case

Set For Friday

The trial of Jim Robinson, charged with the murder of Demmett Woodruff, came to an end Saturday afternoon at 3:20, when the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty" after deliberating five hours and twenty minutes.

The Robinson case has attracted an unusual amount of interest, the Commonwealth making a strong effort to convict Robinson of murder. The evidence against the accused man, however, was not enough for conviction.

After the jury had rendered its verdict, Robinson's attorneys made a motion for bail in the Grover Hoard case for which Robinson was also under indictment. The Court sustained this motion and bail was allowed in the sum of $2,000, which was furnished by the defendant's lawyers. This case was set for the May term of Court.

It is the opinion of many who attended the trial that the Hoard indictment against Robinson will be dismissed without coming to trial, because of the fact if the evidence in the Woodruff case failed to convict Robinson, that in the Hoard case would be even slimmer, as the Commonwealth had endeavored to prove that Robinson and Woodruff were enemies.

The case of the Commonwealth against C. S. Bookwalter, president of the Carbondale Coal Co., Otto Hamilton and Grover Todd, charged with being accessories before the fact in the murder of Demmett Woodruff, which was set for Saturday, was continued until Friday, Feb. 25th.

Important Change In I. C. Schedule

There have been some important changes made in the arrival and departure of I. C. trains at Nortonville, one of which is train No. 102, which formerly left Nortonville at 2:15 now leaves 1:15 p.m. for Louisville. This change will necessitate passengers for Louisville over the I. C. to leave Earlinton on the Dixie flyer at 8:25 a.m. requires a long wait at Nortonville. The most direct and quickest route from here to Louisville now is on train No. 52 to Henderson and over the L. H. & St. L. to destination.

"Bringing Up Father"

Quality rather than quantity is the dominating keynote in the latest Gus Hill attraction "Bringing Up Father," a 20th century play, which is underlined to entertain the patrons of Temple Theatre on Tuesday, Feb. 29th. It is not a hodge podge of old tried and true situations, time worn complications, familiar dialogue, discarded scenery, etc., but a real offering interpreted by real artists, and written by two clever newspaper men who are familiar with the vagaries of human nature. It requires three acts in which to tell a story unique and original in every detail, and with interest sustained with spirited action the rule from beginning to end. In the cast are (85) capable people, who also contribute individual specialties, being introduced. The play is based on the popular cartoons by George McManus, the artist, whose fame extends from Coast to Coast.

Mrs. Lucy Grasty Passes Away

Mrs. Lucy Grasty, a well known lady of Mortons Gap, died at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at that place. Mrs. Grasty was 64 years of age and leaves four children, two boys and two girls, Mrs. Robert Priest of this city and Mrs. Eugene Coenen of Louisiana, Hugh and Wade Grasty of Mortons Gap. The interment will take place at 2:30 this afternoon at the Earlinton cemetery.

Mrs. Grasty was a devoted member of the Christian church and had the love and respect of all who knew her. The many friends of the family extend their deepest sympathy in this hour of trouble.

GOV. STANLEY SAYS NO MONEY

For Illiterates Now—Numerous Projects Require all Available Funds

REPAIRS ARE BADLY NEEDED

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 18.—Gov. Stanley, in an interview granted a representative of a Louisville newspaper today, declared that he is opposed to an appropriation for the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission.

He realizes the importance of the campaign against illiteracy, but declares that the financial condition of the state forbids an appropriation for the purpose, or for a number of other meritorious purposes, which he enumerated.

The governor's statement contains the striking declaration, illustrative of Kentucky's poverty, that the Institute for the feeble-minded has been condemned as unsafe and that its walls are likely to collapse at any time, but that there is no money available to avert such a catastrophe.

The interview follows:

"There are many good things we could do if we had the money. I fully realize the value of the work of the Illiteracy Commission. But I would judge that there are as many adults of the age of forty and beyond who are suffering from tuberculosis and preventable disease, and there is some hope for these if action is taken promptly in their behalf. The man or woman who is suffering from tuberculosis is certainly in worse condition than the man or woman who may be suffering from ignorance."

Another Marion Man

[Record Pres.]

Another Marion boy was recognized and given a promotion last week when Judge Carl Henderson appointed Virgil Moore as Master Commissioner of the Hopkins Circuit Court.

Virgil's friends here had anticipated as much and were not surprised, but were proud to see him thus complimented.

The Hustler of last Thursday had this to say of the appointment: "J. E. Arnold, who has served as Master Commissioner of Hopkins county for the past six years, tendered his resignation to Judge Henderson Wednesday afternoon, which was accepted. Virgil Moore, well known young attorney of the law firm of Gordon, Gordon & Moore was appointed as Mr. Arnold's successor, entering upon his new duties Thursday. Mr. Arnold's term did not expire until May, 1917. He has made a splendid official during the time he has served. Mr. Moore is well qualified for the duties he assumes and will make a worthy successor to Mr. Arnold."

Pape's Diaepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

FIRE AT DEPOT

Quite a little excitement was caused this morning at 11:30 when the fire alarm sounded for District No. 2. The blaze proved to be at the depot in the operator's room, but was soon extinguished. The loss was small. The Earlinton Fire Department did good, quick work.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincere thanks and gratitude to the many neighbors and friends for the noble assistance rendered during the illness and death of our departed wife and mother. May God in his wisdom reward each one of us our prayer. J. M. KESTNER and family.

Methodist Hill Notes

All services were well attended Sunday. The Sunday School was enthusiastic, 103 present. "The Whole of the Earth" and "Advancing Beauties classes are running a close race in attendance, 29 to 28. The Advancing Beauties have increased from 6 to 28 in about 6 weeks. Brother Abe Draper takes great pride in trying to make the lesson interesting to them and they are all very much in love with their teacher and he with them. The Wesley class has a new teacher, Brother Oscar East. He and the class are preparing to give the other two classes a tight race for the largest in number. All classes have increased in number and still are striving to reach a higher goal.

Prayer meeting Thursday night. Subject, "How should a Christian Live?" All are cordially invited to attend and take part. Last Thursday night was very interesting and was largely attended. J. W. Ramsey of Mt. Olivette class was a pleasant visitor and aims to be with us again next Thursday night.

The Ladies Aid is progressing nicely, most all members present with willing hands and happy hearts.

A CHILD HATES OIL, CALOMEL, PILLS FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if cross, sick, feverish, constipated

Lock back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

An application will then be mailed to you, and if after our investigation has been made, a baby or a small girl or boy is placed in your home, you have done your part towards making Baby Week a national success.

OBSERVING BABY WEEK, MARCH 4-11

A Movement Inaugurated by the Federal Children's Bureau of Washington, D. C.

To the Editor of the Bee:—We have all heard of Tuberculosis Sunday, the Big Brother Movement, Mother's Day, and Father's Day, and as a natural consequence of the tremendous awakening of interest in home life, Baby Week has been established, and during the week, March 4th to 11th, all over the United States a special effort will be made to find homes for babies and small girls and boys. It is hoped that homes will be found for 100,000 children, and our State must do her part in the great work.

The Kentucky Children's Home Society is doing its' utmost for the children intrusted to its care, but in order to achieve the best results, a child needs the love of a mother and father, and the home life that impossible, even in the best maintained institution.

Visitors to our Receiving Home always comment on the happy faces of our children, but when the question is asked, "Would you like to have a mamma and a papa and a home?" the child always answers, "Yes."

How much joy and sunshine a baby brings to a home, and what man is there, no matter how tired he may be after a hard day's work, whose heart is not thrilled by the joyous cry, "Daddy's coming; I must run to meet him."

The Federal Children's Bureau of Washington, D. C. is working for the best interests of the children throughout the United States. The Kentucky Children's Home Society is working for the interests of our Kentucky children, and we sincerely hope that we will meet with a most hearty response from our best citizens, and that the homeless child may be brought to the childless home.

Besides the babies in our Receiving Home, we have a large number of small boys and girls. If you are at all interested in getting a child, kindly write to George L. Sehon, State Supt., Kentucky Children's Home Society, 1086 Baxter Ave., Louisville, Ky.

An application will then be mailed to you, and if after our investigation has been made, a baby or a small girl or boy is placed in your home, you have done your part towards making Baby Week a national success.

Geo. L. Sehon, Supt.

Auction Whist Club

Mrs. W. K. Nisbet entertained the Auction Whist Club most charmingly on last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Davee of Evansville, and Mrs. Johnson of Louisville, were guests of the Club. Mrs. Rule made decidedly the highest score of the season. Mesdames Rule, Johnson, Kline and Ross lead in the total score. During the social hour a delicious salad course was served.

Don't Spit On The Streets

A great many people have the thoughtless, filthy habit of expectorating on the streets. There is nothing that is more of a nuisance than this. It is enough to turn the stomach of a fastidious person to see, the average Earlinton street. It is just as easy and much nicer to expectorate in the gutter than on the street. This offense is punishable by a fine and is a crime against good taste.

Card of Thanks

I sincerely wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to those who showered upon us so many kindnesses during the illness and death of my wife, and pray God's richest blessings upon them.

A Man With A Vision

It is the men with visions that build up states and industries, and bring into being far-reaching reforms, even if at times their visions are derided. It was a vision of an electrified country that Samuel Insull, president of Commonwealth Edison of Chicago, saw and recently outlined in an address to some electrical men.

This part of Mr. Insull's vision is:

"It takes about 2,800,000 tons of coal yearly to operate the railroads in the Chicago district by steam locomotives. Applying the same figures to the entire country and correcting by figures of the Interstate Commerce Commission, we find that 185,000,000 tons of coal are yearly required for steam railroads in this country. If the same process is followed with the diversity factor as in Chicago, we find that if we could marshal all the energy requirements of central stations, railways, manufactures, mineral, street cars, etc., the 43,000,000 horse-power now required for separate operation would be reduced to 30,000,000 horse-power if operated under one system of production and distribution.

Visitors to our Receiving Home always comment on the happy faces of our children, but when the question is asked, "Would you like to have a mamma and a papa and a home?" the child always answers, "Yes."

How much joy and sunshine a baby brings to a home, and what man is there, no matter how tired he may be after a hard day's work, whose heart is not thrilled by the joyous cry, "Daddy's coming; I must run to meet him."

The Federal Children's Bureau of Washington, D. C. is working for the best interests of the children throughout the United States—that, of course, is impossible—but I do suggest a series of state-wide organizations where the density of use is sufficient for all the energy requirements of one territory to be met by one system per territory. One might embrace Boston and New York, another New York and Philadelphia, a third Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. The savings of such group systems would be almost fabulous, amounting to from 12,000,000 horse-power to 15,000,000 horse-power at, say, $200 per horse-power. The annual saving in fuel consumption would be about 250,000,000 tons, or $50,000,000.

AH! BACKACHE GONE! RUB LUMBAGO AWAY

Ruh Pain from back with small trial bottle of old "St. Jacob's Oil".

Ah! Pain is gone!

Quickly?—Yes. Almost instant relief from soreness, stiffness, lameness and pain follows a gentle rubbing with "St. Jacob's Oil."

Rub this soothing, penetrating oil right on your painful back, and like magic, relief comes. "St. Jacob's Oil" is a harmless backache, lumbago and sciatica cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin.

Straighten up! Quit complaining! Stop those tortuous "stitches." In a moment you will forget that you ever had a weak back, because it won't hurt or be stiff or lame. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" from your druggist now and get this lasting relief.

TELLS OF WINNING BATTLE WITH BOOZE

"Last Romp with Tiger"
Topic of Drummer Evangelist at the Y. M. C. A.

Evansville, Ky., Feb. 21—"The Last Romp with the Tiger," a story of his descent and rise from the degradation of drunkenness was the theme of Billy Williams, drummer evangelist in an address to men at the Y. M. C. A. big meeting at Evans hall Sunay afternoon. The evangelist spent a busy day yesterday. In the morning he spoke to the Y. M. C. A. Berean class and at St. Mark's English Lutheran church. In the evening he spoke on "Breaking Home Ties," to the members of the Bethany Christian church.

The evangelist said in part, yesterday afternoon:

"I am not proud of my history as it touches the drink habit. I tell it with a blush of shame and because God, I think, wants me to tell it, as He has blessed it to the salvation of many who were under the paw of the tiger and I trust He will bless it tonight.

"I sold 14 carloads of goods in Little Rock, Ark., in three days, for which I was getting $5 per carload commission, besides my salary. I was not one of those starved-out drunkards, I was making a good deal more money than I am now. I had a good home, with every comfort, but at times, in spite of it all, I would get on a whiz.

"When I arrived in Kansas City, my next point, I was still celebrating. For five weeks I kept it up until my roll of expense money was all gone. Then I took my watch, a present from Bishop John P. Newman, and that went into soak. Then I took the coat off my back, and it went into soak with the watch. With my money gone, watch and coat in soak, I was wandering the streets of Kansas City, without a cent, begging ten cents from the passerby on the street to get a drink.

"Broken in pocketbook, credit and spirit, I was met by a Cherokee Indian, a Mason brother, a drinking man whom I had sold goods to in the Indian Territory. He took my watch and coat out of soak, had me shaved and procured me clean linen, as I had not had a clean shirt or a shave in the whole five weeks. I could not give my money to a barber or a laundry with every nerve in me calling for rum.

This Mason friend took me to the train and bought me a ticket to Fort Smith, Ark., where I layed, put me in charge of a Pullman car conductor, with $10 in my pocket. So when I arrived in Fort Smith I was still celebrating because I had drunk whiskey on the car all the way down from Kansas City. For five days and nights I kept up this celebration in Fort Smith, with my boy trying to get me home.

Free Vacation Tours

It has been the custom of the Southern Woman's Magazine for some time to conduct each year a series of Vacation Tours for their representatives. This is a somewhat novel plan as it does not have any contest feature, but is a definite offer to their representatives.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for one thing only.

For weak or disordered kidneys. Here is reliable evidence of their worth.

Mrs. Eva Hobbs, N. Seminary St., Madisonville, Ky., says: "I used everything that was recommended for kidney complaint, but the trouble remained. I tried plasters and different medicines, too, without success. Finally my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking a few doses, I felt their beneficial effect. I continued until all symptoms of kidney disease were removed. My health is now greatly improved." (Statement given May 20, 1907.)

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER, Mrs. Hobbs said: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally and found them excellent for kidney trouble."

HAMLETT AGREES TO DROP CONTEST

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 19.—The contest of Barksdale Hamlett with J. P. Lewis for the office of Secretary of State came to an end tonight, when Hamlett withdrew his petition.

Hamlett is ill having been on the verge of a nervous breakdown for weeks. He was advised today that he could not stand the strain much longer, or else he would become a nervous wreck. Hamlett will take a rest and then take up the practice of law. Lewis agreed to pay all the costs in the case.

Hamlett said: "On account of my unfortunate domestic affairs and lack of finances due to my hard fight in the primary and general election, and my lack of funds since, and not wishing to embarrass my friends to carry on the contest for the office which I believe I fairly and honestly won and on account of the hostile conditions inside and outside of my party and loyalty to my family first, and party next, and for the sake of party harmony, I have decided to withdraw my suit for the contest of this office.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Pall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucus surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
